ONE (1) MILITARY PERSONNEL TESTS NEGATIVE FOR COVID-19

September 2, 2020

The Ministry of Health (MOH) is pleased to inform the public that the one (1) military personnel who arrived in Palau on September 1, 2020 had tested negative for COVID-19 on day 1 of his quarantine period.

Per quarantine regulations, this individual is in quarantine, his movements restricted to his place of work and residence in Angaur, and will have no contact with any of the residents. He will be tested again on day 7, and placed in quarantine in a government-designated facility in Koror for an additional seven (7) days. He will further undergo final testing on day 14 before being released from mandatory quarantine.

If you have any questions or need further information on quarantine or testing activities, please contact the MOH EOC Deputy Incident Commander, Mr. Gaafar Uherbelau at 775-1310.
