UPDATES ON TESTING AND QUARANTINE IN PALAU

November 27, 2020

The Ministry of Health (MOH) would like to provide the public with the following updates on testing and quarantine of individuals in Palau:

- The twenty-one (21) residents and essential workers who arrived in Palau on PSS H. I. Remeliik II (Patrol Boat) took their day 21 tests on November 25, 2020, and all results were negative. They have been cleared of all quarantine and testing requirements.
- The four (4) essential workers who arrived via Taiwan but originated from Japan took their day 14 tests on November 26, 2020, and all results were negative. They have been released from mandatory quarantine and will undergo final testing on day 21.
- At this time, there are no individuals in mandatory quarantine.

MOH continues to thank the community for its support to all COVID-19 response activities.

If you have any questions or need further information on quarantine or testing for COVID-19, please contact the MOH EOC Deputy Incident Commander, Mr. Gaafar Uherbelau at 775-1310.
