SIX (6) ESSENTIAL WORKERS TEST NEGATIVE FOR COVID-19 AND RELEASED FROM MANDATORY QUARANTINE

August 20, 2020

The Ministry of Health (MOH) is informing the public that the six (6) military personnel who arrived in Palau on August 12, 2020 have completed their quarantine requirements, including two negative tests for COVID-19, on days 1 and 7.

Per current quarantine regulations, these individuals are now released from mandatory quarantine and will continue to self-monitor their symptoms and practice preventive measures, including the restriction of their movements to their place of work and residence. They will undergo their final COVID-19 test on day 14.

If you have any questions or need further information on quarantine or testing activities, please contact the MOH EOC Deputy Incident Commander, Mr. Gaafar Uherbelau at 775-1310.
