UPDATES ON TESTING AND QUARANTINE IN PALAU

February 26, 2021

The Ministry of Health (MOH) would like to provide the public with the following updates on testing and quarantine of individuals in Palau in the past week:

- The five (5) essential workers who arrived on February 5, 2021 received their day 14 tests, and all results were negative. They have been released from mandatory quarantine, and will continue to self-monitor before undergoing final testing on day 21.
- The five (5) military personnel who arrived on February 7, 2021 received their day 14 tests, and all results were negative. They have been released from mandatory quarantine, and will continue to self-monitor before undergoing final testing on day 21.
- The fourteen (14) military personnel/essential workers who arrived on February 9, 2021 have received their day 14 tests, and all results were negative. They have been released from mandatory quarantine, and will continue to self-monitor before undergoing final testing on day 21.
- The one (1) essential worker who arrived on February 10, 2021 has received his day 14 test, and his results were negative. He has been released from mandatory quarantine and will continue to self-monitor before undergoing final testing on day 21.

MOH continues to thank the community for its support to all COVID-19 response activities. If you have any questions or need further information on quarantine or testing for COVID-19, please contact the MOH EOC Deputy Incident Commander, Mr. Gaafar Uherbelau at 775-1310.
