UPDATES ON TESTING AND QUARANTINE IN PALAU

December 15, 2020

The Ministry of Health (MOH) would like to provide the public with the following updates on testing and quarantine of individuals in Palau:

- Fifty-two (52) residents and essential workers who originated and arrived yesterday from Taiwan received their day 1 tests today, and all results were negative. They remain in mandatory quarantine for another week before undergoing day 7 testing, per quarantine orders.
- The other five (5) travelers who originated from Japan are in mandatory quarantine and will undergo testing on days 7, 14, and 21, per quarantine orders.

MOH continues to thank the community for its support to all COVID-19 response activities.

If you have any questions or need further information on quarantine or testing for COVID-19, please contact the MOH EOC Deputy Incident Commander, Mr. Gaafar Uherbelau at 775-1310.
