UPDATES ON TESTING AND QUARANTINE IN PALAU

December 21, 2020

The Ministry of Health (MOH) would like to provide the public with the following updates on testing and quarantine of individuals in Palau:

- Fifty-seven (57) residents and essential workers who arrived from Taiwan on December 14, 2020 received their day 7 tests today, and all results were negative.
  - Fifty-two (52) of these travelers who originated from Taiwan have been released from mandatory quarantine, but will continue to self-monitor for another week before undergoing final testing on day 14.
  - Five (5) who originated from Japan will remain in mandatory quarantine for another week before undergoing testing on day 14.

MOH continues to thank the community for its support to all COVID-19 response activities.

If you have any questions or need further information on quarantine or testing for COVID-19, please contact the MOH EOC Deputy Incident Commander, Mr. Gaafar Uherbelau at 775-1310.
